

Our IV Hydration Drips

The LiquiLift

MAXIMUM IMPACT! This is your one-stop shop for all of your nutrient needs. It has the greatest impact on mood, and rehydrates the brain and other important organs instantly. Many people use this drip as a long-term strategy to stay healthy all year round.

Performance Hydration

Achieve more. Recharge to 100%. Perfect for anyone who wants to train hard, we recommend this infusion before or after intense physical activity. This IV drip will give you stamina and help you recover muscles simultaneously.

Fountain of Youth

Activate skin, hair, and nails. This formula detoxifies the body and promotes noticeably healthier skin, hair, and nails because it contains glutathione and vitamin C.

Natural Defense

Attack sickness head-on, naturally. If you're under the weather or already sick with the common cold or flu, this high dose of vitamin C and other nutrients will boost your immune system.

Rise and Shine

Exhausted? If you've had a long night out, this mix of essential vitamins and minerals replenishes electrolytes, rehydrates the body, and boosts your energy levels in just a few minutes.

The Executive

Feel Sharp and mentally alert. Fight stress caused by heavy workloads and long business days. This drip also helps you recover from jet lag while giving you a sense of sharper memory and focus.

Glutathione

Slow down the aging process with this master antioxidant. Encourage cell revitalization and regeneration, while you detoxify the liver and drastically improve your skin complexion after a series of treatments.
